HOMEcoming QUEEN
AND PRINCESS

Queen Janet and Princess Carol

HOMECOMING

A new queen

Amidst the excitement and tension of the Coronation ceremony on Thursday night, a surprised and happy Janet Krueger was crowned Homecoming Queen with Carol Ulrich as her Princess. Emcees for the event were Tom Backen and Greg Seivert.

HOMECOMING 1970

Bomb the birds!

The Homecoming dance, featuring the "Free 'n Easy," was held Friday, October 9 in the high school gymnasium. The game against Waseca, scheduled for Friday evening, was postponed until November 6 because of rain. The Tigers were defeated, 26-18.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

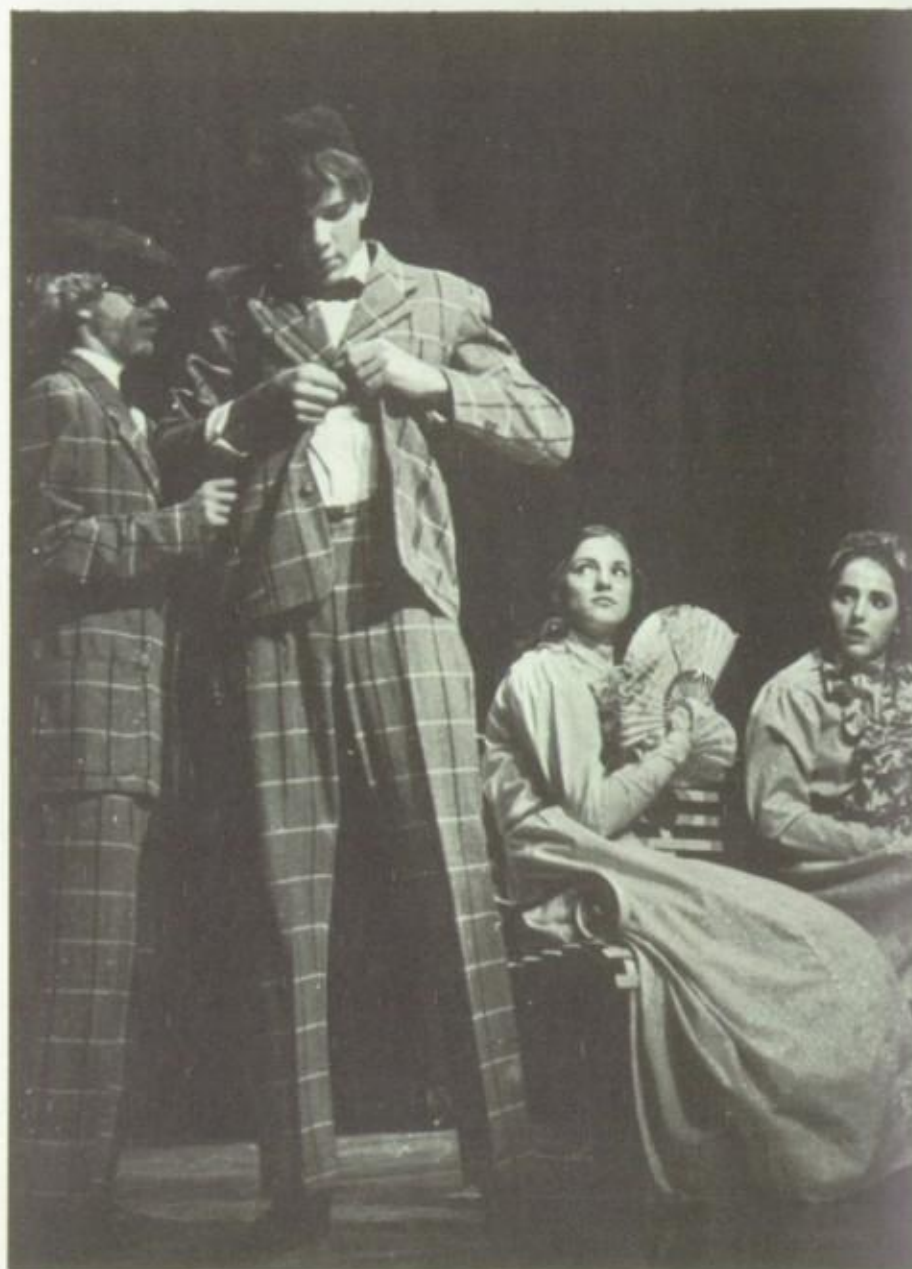

Thieves' Carnival

A stylized comedy captivated audiences this fall as Hutch High students presented "Thieves' Carnival" by Jean Anouilh. Filled with nonsense and laughter, it lightheartedly took some of the seriousness out of life. Mrs. Hubin coordinated the play as production director.

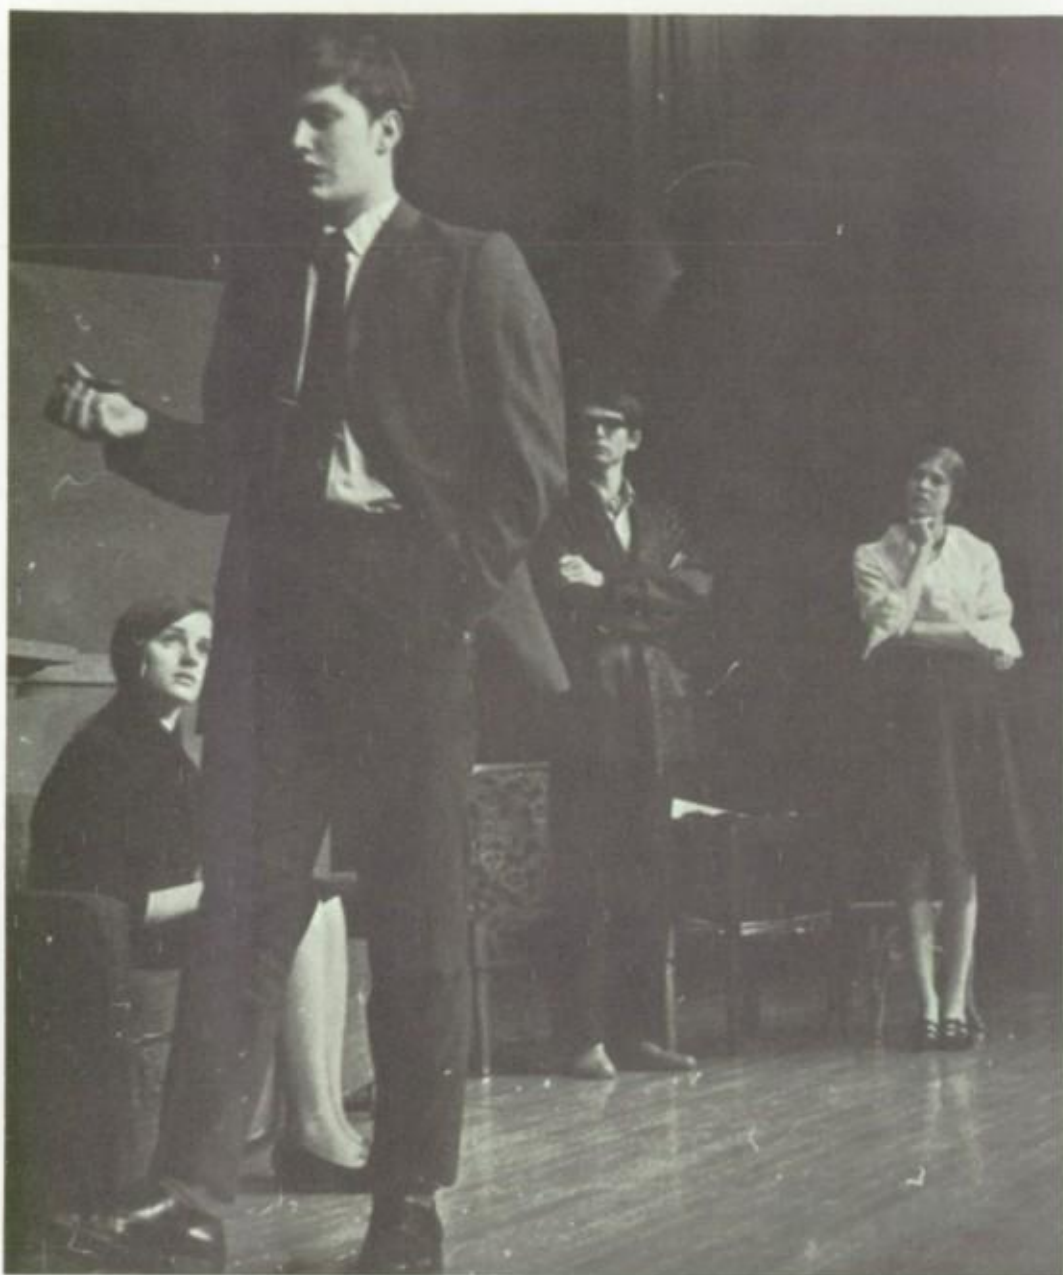

Above: "I'm sure I don't know, my dear." Right: Lady Hurf greets her long-lost friend, the Duke of Miraflores and his son, Hector.

ONE-ACT PLAY

The Bald Soprano

Eugene Ionesco's "The Bald Soprano" was chosen as Hutch's entry in one-act play competition by the director, Mr. Bailey. Jill Horswell was named best actress in the District Competition held here January 30.

MID-WINTER FORMAL

Odyssey yields enchantment

Hard work and confusion confronted the juniors as they prepared for the annual Mid-winter Formal. All the planning, preparations and headaches paid off, though, with a very successful formal. Music was provided by the System who added to the enchanted evening of "An Odyssey to Be."

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

Fine arts viewed

The spring Fine Arts Festival included musical selections by the Ninth Grade Chorus, Girl's Glee Club, Concert Choir, Orchestra, Swing Choir, Melodettes, Band I and Band II. The art department was represented by several fine displays. Certificates of merit were awarded to the best pieces of art work. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria. Advisors and directors for the event were Mr. Heley, Mr. Bergland, Miss Bellile, Mr. Moore, Miss Henderson and Mr. Skaar.

“south pacific”

A tropical setting provides the perfect background for a romance, but add the difficulties of World War II and complications are bound to ensue. Such was the case in the all-school musical, SOUTH PACIFIC by Rodgers and Hammerstein. Directors for the production were Mrs. Hubin, Mr. Berglund and Mr. Bailey.

GRADUATION

Commencing on to better things

For the seniors it was the end of school — a time for thoughtful memories and bright hopes for the future. The graduating class of 1971 eagerly greeted the new challenges of an ever-changing world as they made their final trek through the halls of the Hutchinson High School.

Senior faces exhibit bright thoughts of the future.

NATIONAL HONOR

SOCIETY

More than a name

Involved best describes this year's National Honor Society. Members successfully tutored pupils at the elementary school and the parochial school, quite an accomplishment for a previously inactive group. Two-year members also took an educational trip to the national capitol in Washington, D. C., on funds accumulated through weekly bake sales, candy sales, and self-contributions.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND THESPIANS

Leaders and performers organize

Along with its annual activities, Community Chest Week, and the Variety Show, Student Council also innovated some changes this year — the most important being non-restricted elections, council-sponsored lyceums, and the first steps toward a student commons.

The International Thespian Society is an honorary group whose membership is determined by a point system. Points are awarded for work in dramatics and speech activities.

AFS

Broadening understanding

Our lone foreign exchange student this year was Maria Alvarenga from Vitoria, Brazil. She spent the year with the Bob Robert's family. Carol Ulrich was our representative abroad and spent the summer of 1970 in Concepcion, Chile. The climax of the A.F.S. program was reached with a successful A.F.S. Weekend held at the end of January.

Below: Carol and Maria romp in the snow.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

An international Christmas

Members of the various language classes gathered once again this year for their annual Christmas party. Here students were given an opportunity to learn about the culture and traditions of France, Germany and Spain.

SPEECH

Region champions

After receiving top ratings and the district plaque, speech participants then proceeded to another first in Region III competition. Two speakers, Brad Jensen in Serious Interpretation and Tom Backen in Extemporaneous Speaking, continued to the state speech festival, both taking sixth place. At the first annual speech banquet, Tom Backen became Speaker of the Year — 1971. Director of speech was Mr. Nubel.

FFA

National winners!

In October, three FFA'ers won the National Dairy Judging Contest in Kansas City, Missouri. They were Tim Martens, Ivan Duesterhoeft, and Randy Luthens. Chuck Albrecht also gained recognition as a gold emblem winner. Throughout the year, the chapter has sponsored magazine sales and contributed to needy organizations.

FHA

Plans for future

This year, our FHA chapter hosted the District IV meeting and took an educational tour of the Art Institute and the planetarium. They also arranged the annual Sweetheart Coronation and held a Mother-Daughter Banquet. Advisor was Miss Jensen.

Since the FHA attempts to provide girls with knowledge that they may use later on in life, many members try their hand at cooking at some time during the year. Above two girls are tasting the results of their efforts as their advisor, Miss Jensen, looks on.

SELECT VOCAL GROUPS

Select groups enhance music

The Senior High Vocal Department includes three select groups: the Concert Choir, Swing Choir, and Melodettes, all directed by Mr. Berglund. They perform several concerts during the year and sing at the request of school and community organizations. Members of these choirs also have the opportunity to gain recognition in the annual vocal contest.

GIRL'S ATHLETICS

Physical fitness

This year, track fame was not limited to the boys. A girls' track team was organized by Miss Tschida, a first in girls' athletics. Their competition was mostly intra-squad.

BASEBALL AND TRACK

Learning the fundamentals

The purpose of junior high baseball is to teach the participants the fundamentals of the game. A total of forty-five boys went out for the sport and performed very well in their games. The coach for the team was Mr. Salmi.

The junior high track team had several meets this year with schools such as Willmar, Litchfield Glencoe, New Ulm and St. Peter. At their invitational meets, the seventh grade placed second and the eighth and ninth graders were champions. Mr. Hoikka was their coach.

ADMINISTRATION

Shaping the future

The administration spends much of its time planning methods to improve our educational opportunities. Vocational education, specialization, innovative methods of teaching, and new curricular are ways being used to help equip our graduates to meet the challenges of today's society. Consultations with students plus the regular duties they perform also help keep the members of the administration busy.

SCHOOL BOARD. Row 1: Donn Ulrich, Dr. Carl Bretzke, Dr. Dwight Chernausek, Donald Popp. Row 2: E. Dale Birkeland, Charles Carlson, Robert Stearns, Donald A. Peterson.

FACULTY

Aiding us through the year

Our counselors and special assistants guide the students as they make program arrangements. The teachers, such as those in math and science, also help the students, in class and out.

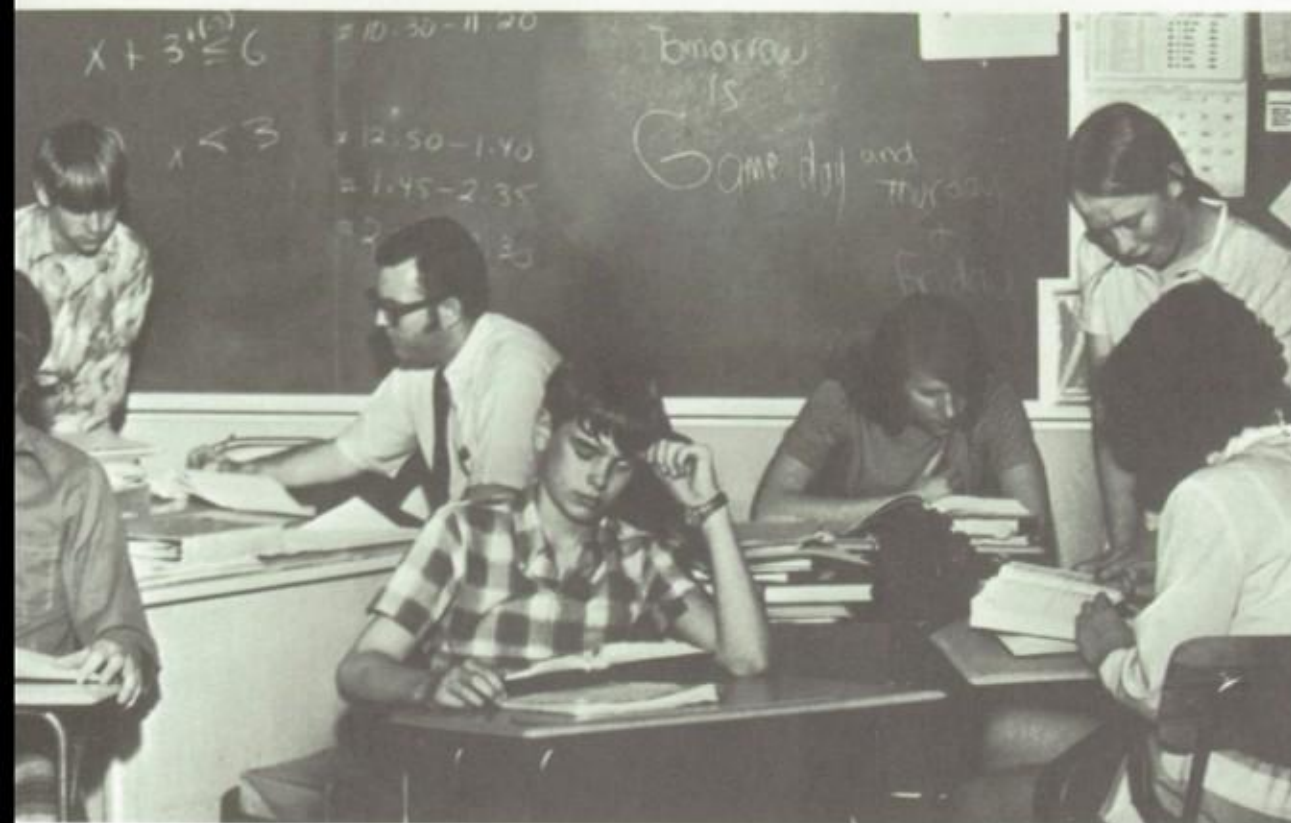

Above: Dick Lennes, a finalist for the Minnesota Teacher of the Year, has had much influence in both the school and the community. For the past two years, his Office Education girls have claimed the state title, and in 1970, they were national champions. We wish Mr. Lennes the best of luck in vieing for the title of Minnesota Teacher of the Year.

COUNSELORS: Ivan Hurt, Phyllis Larson, Mathilda Sageng, Arlen Solie, Irene Marzloff. SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST: Sam Scholl.

A black and white photograph of a person standing on a wooden walkway in a stadium, looking out over the seating area. The person is seen from behind, wearing a light-colored shirt and dark shorts. The walkway is made of long wooden planks and runs parallel to the bleachers. The bleachers are made of wood and metal, and are mostly empty. In the background, there is a field and some trees under a clear sky.
